Schedule	Departure from Melbourne The Dandenong The Dandenong Ranges, known to the locals as the Dandenong, are beautiful low mountain ranges just 35kms east of Melbourne Grant's Reserve & Morning Tea Nestled in the heart of the Dandenong Mountains is Grant's Reserve – a haven in the wilderness. On arrival you will be charmed by the surrounding mountain hue and crisp clear air. While here you will enjoy a traditional Devonshire Tea of homemade scones, served warm with jam and cream, and tea, served in china tea cups. Puffing Billy Steam Train This century-old steam train is maintained in its original glory and runs to this day on its own mountain track from Belgrave to Gembrook. Here you'll go back in time as you get on board for a 30 minute ride through the heart of the rainforest. Sassafras From Gembrook you will then be on your way to the lovely little village of Sassafras. Once in Sassafras you can take your time to explore the delightful antique and craft shops dotted throughout the village. Return to Melbourne
